Southern California and San Francisco & San Joaquin Valley divisions of the Santa Fe, extending from Albuquerque, N. M., to San Francisco, went out today almost to a man.

While the national officers of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers will make no statement as to their plans, it is hinted that if the management of the Santa Fe does not grant the demands of the strikers within the next twenty-four hours the operators over the entire system may be called out.

Bureaus have been established in Chicago, Kansas City and St. Louis for the purpose of hiring operators to take the places of the strikers, but at the headquarters of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers it is stated they are not meeting with much success in getting men.

PUEBLO, Colo., Dec. 8.—Many Santa Fe Railroad men quit today and at La Junta in sympathy with the strike of the telegraphers. The number out is estimated at between 300 and 400 in this division, including all not absolutely necessary in the moving of trains, taking in the telegraphers, shopmen, machinists, station employes and a number of trainmen and sectionmen. The telephone is being used in running trains between here and Denver.

GRIEVANCE OF STRIKERS General Chairman Newman, at Whose Order the Men Quit Work, Explains Situation.

WICHITA, Kan., Dec. 8.—General Chairman J. A. Newman of the Santa Fe division of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, including the entire Santa Fe system, issued the following order at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon and a few minutes later he was informed that 1,300 operators over the entire system had quit their jobs.

To all agents and operators of the Santa Fe system: In accordance with the action of my general committee in New York, I hereby advise you that the strike of the telegraphers, on this date you will strike, cease work, and therefore refuse to perform any duty of any character whatsoever until the said strike is declared by the telegraphers and notice of settlement of all your grievances acknowledged. Said notice must be verified by our local representatives. You will turn your boards red for the protection of life and property, and remain there until the strike is permanently. Carefully protect all company property in your care or possession.

Eozema How it reddens the skin, itches, oozes, dries and scales. Some people call it tetter, milk crust or salt rheum.

The suffering from it is sometimes intense; local applications are resorted to; but it proceeds from humors inherited or acquired and persists until these have been removed.

Hood's Sarsaparilla positively removes them, has radically and permanently cured the worst cases, and is without an equal for all cutaneous eruptions.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best cathartic. Price at all druggists.

MERCIER MADE A MISTAKE

French People Not in Line with His Expressed Sentiments.

LOOKED UPON AS A HARMFUL ENTHUSIAST Thought of Invading England Not That of the Mass of Citizens, Who Do Not Seek for a War.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, Dec. 8.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—General Mercier is again enjoying several radically different kinds of popularity since his speech in the senate demanding that the French government be directed to take measures to insure the success of an eventual invasion of England.

In that speech he revealed the secret that in his mind while he was the minister of war, he had worked out all the details of such an invasion. The patriots of the rabid school now hail Mercier as a Caesar, as the only man able to lead France to glory. But sensible people deplore the speech, which, it is believed, will certainly have serious consequences, despite the freed levity with which England greeted Mercier's declarations.

The best newspapers print harsh editorials upon Mercier. Several demand that he be tried for high treason, and have disclosed state secrets. Jean Jaures, the great socialist and chief, writes: "Neither the English nor the French people want to fight. They know and seem each other. Subsidized political leaders are responsible for the friction. Such men as Chamberlain and Mercier, in whichever country they happen to be found, ought to put to death without any more formalities than is used to get rid of mad dogs. They are public universal calamities."

General Mercier is English and he owns large estates in England.

WHY THEY DIDN'T LIKE SLOAN English Public Remembers His Brutal and Offensive Personal Ways Too Well.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Dec. 8.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Tod Sloan finds few defenders among British sportsmen. Personally Sloan is the reverse of popular. The recent episode, when he brutally assaulted a waiter with a champagne bottle, lowered him greatly in the eyes of the crowd. His cleverness is undoubted, but he has been regarded with growing suspicion since that time. In fact, the immediate cause of the refusal to grant Sloan a license is regarded as a mere pretext for getting rid of a troublesome individual.

Lester Reiff, on the other hand, emerges with flying colors from the most exhaustive investigation any jockey ever sustained. Lord Durham's insinuations against American jockeys proved due merely to ignorant prejudice.

The sweeping success of the American jockeys on the English turf is strikingly illustrated by the percentage table. At the point system of calculating Sloan is first, with Lester Reiff second, Danny Maher third and Johnny Reiff fourth. This system of figuring takes into consideration the times the jockeys have finished second and third.

Collectively the Americans scored 693 per cent, as against 307 for the English jockeys. It is not surprising that the English bettors are fast adopting the American methods.

YOUNG SWELLS ARE SOAKED Four Gay Boys from Cambridge Made to Pay Fines for Disturbing a Music Hall.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Dec. 8.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Four young swells of 20, Charles Dudley Ward, first cousin of Earl Dudley, Lord Alan Percy, son of the duke of Northumberland, John Spencer Coke, third son of the earl of Leicester, and Robert Oppenheim, son of the millionaire banker—were charged in the police court with attempting to force their way into the pavilion of a music hall without paying and when ejected with linking their arms and pushing foot passengers on Piccadilly. A constable also preferred a charge of drunkenness, but the police doctor certified that they were only excited and not drunk.

The accused, who were up from Cambridge university for the evening, vigorously denied both accusations, stating that a friend of Oppenheim's had a box in the pavilion and that they had been invited to join him. They also charged the policeman with exaggerating them, but the magistrate fined them £4, or fourteen days imprisonment each.

This sentence was undoubtedly more severe than would have been inflicted on less aristocratic prisoners, but in London police the motto, "Noblesse oblige," invariably rules.

MANY DOGS OF HIGH DEGREE Show of Canine Champions Whose Owners Place Really Fancy Prices on Them.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Dec. 8.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Dog fancying is now running rarer races close as a fad with the most fashionable and the wealthiest classes in England. At the Birmingham show this week, an average provincial town exhibition, $12,500 was given in prizes, and the total exhibits are estimated as being worth $200,000. Several dogs were priced at $50,000, among them the deer-hounds Selwood Dhuran, winner of fifteen championships, and Rufford Bendar, 4 years old, owned by Mrs. H. Armstrong.

The duchess of Newcastle exhibited three Russian Borzoi, all champion dogs, and each valued at $50,000, while her champion collier, Arnskirik Emerald, was priced at half that sum.

The princess Montgionny showed three colliers priced at $50,000 apiece, one winning a championship, while Mr. Pog showed the champion bulldog, Woodcote Chinoise, valued at the same amount.

In the mastiff class the champion, Markman, was priced at $50,000, while some of the other dogs were also set down at this prohibitive sum, which really means they were not for sale, no such price ever having been paid for any dog.

CRIME AT THE PARIS FAIR Police Department of the Exposition Issues an Interesting Statistical Report.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, Dec. 8.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The exposition police report, just out, shows a total of 13,997 arrests on the fair grounds. The causes are thus divided: Murder, 4; murderous assaults, 115; crimes against morals, 362; minor assaults, 1,159; defacing property, 401; theft, 4,603.

Strangers arrested were 1,192. Of those forty-four were Americans, which was less than any other nation, except Denmark and Rumania, which had but one. The total number of objects found and turned over to the police was 66,317, including a satchel

TARIFF FOR THE PHILIPPINES Commission Frames a Measure and is Ready for Public Hearings on It.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) MANILA, Dec. 8.—The Philippine commission has prepared a bill fixing the duties upon imports and exports. There will be a public discussion of the measure next week. Under its provisions importations of trade marks and apparatus used in games of chance are prohibited. The rates of duty have not yet been perfected.

Fifty-two prisoners were captured in the suburbs of San Antonio and San Benito last Wednesday by a detachment of the Thirty-seventh regiment. Many escaped, but a portion of these were overhauled and captured by the gunboat Laguna de Bay.

HER STRENGTH HER BOAST Young Divorced Matron Startles Paris by Wrestling with Her Intended Husband.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, Dec. 8.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The young Comtesse de Becker is the heroine of an episode which has been excitedly discussed in the most exclusive Franco-American circles. A tall blonde, the comtesse is very fond of her reputation as an all-around athlete. She was formerly Helene Richman of Detroit. Two years ago she divorced her husband.

Her strength being challenged by her fiancé, she offered to wrestle him before twenty intimate friends of both sexes. His victory was stubbornly disputed. The first bout lasted twenty minutes and the second forty. The comtesse was defeated twice.

She wore a suit which was startlingly practical. After the necessary toilette, the wrestlers and the crowd adjourned to a supper in a private room at the Cafe Anglaise, where, in the course of a joyous feast, the comtesse was taunted upon her defeat. She promptly challenged the main offender, Count de Lautrec, and defeated him in two minutes, proving that it took a really strong man to beat her. Parisian society is making such a protest over the comtesse's actions that she may make her residence in London hereafter.

Trying to Save Ferrell's Life. COLUMBIA, Mo., Dec. 8.—The attorney of Roslyn H. Ferrell, the express robber, sentenced to be electrocuted on March 1 next, will make one more effort to save his life. They have given notice that they will present his case to the Board of Pardons at its next meeting, asking that it recommend commutation of sentence to life imprisonment.

A WINNING BOY. Earns His Medals by the Use of Good Food.

A Vicksburg, Miss., boy, J. B. Smith, corner Grove and Third streets, named for his being studying very hard to try and beat my room in examination. I have been eating oatmeal and cream for breakfast all my life. Lately when the hard study began I did not feel well enough to go to school, and there was an examination ahead of me and an exhibition too. "I was determined to go through this examination, but felt so sick all the time that I didn't know how to accomplish it. Well, another saw the Grape-Nuts food advertised, so she bought some and gave it to me for breakfast every morning, and you just ought to see what this food did for me."

It is of the greatest importance that parents feed their growing children, during study, on the most nourishing food possible to obtain, and there is no question on this score regarding Grape-Nuts, for the food is compounded of the elements selected from the grain which go to quickly make, and rebuild the brain and nerve centers. Any parent can prove this statement by feeding the children on Grape-Nuts. Obtained from any first-class grocer.

AMERICAN IDEAS IN RUSSIA

Y. M. C. A. Taking a Strong Hold in the Capital of the Great Empire.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 25.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—The St. Petersburg Young Men's Christian association is having phenomenal success. Rooms were opened less than two months ago. There are now over 500 members or applicants for membership. Classes in bookkeeping, English, French, German, correspondence and shorthand are well attended. Over 100 men are ardent students of bookkeeping. Evenings one can usually find 250 members at the classes, in the rooms, playing games or drinking tea. Alcoholic liquors and tobacco are barred from the rooms, though no pledges to abstain from their use are exacted from members. The secretary, Mr. Franklin Gaylord, has succeeded in transplanting the American institution with only such modifications as the customs of the country require. The name, "Society for Promoting the Physical and Moral Development of Young Men," was adopted in deference to the wishes of the government, and in order to prevent orthodox Russians from suspecting it of a proselyting association. His royal highness, the prince of Oldenburg, Rev. Alexander Francis, pastor of the Anglo-American church, and several priests of the orthodox church, whose interests in the enterprise were enlisted by James Stokes of New York, continued to give Mr. Gaylord zealous support. The enterprise has also shown interest in various ways.

The marquis of Queensberry is here making arrangements for beginning the active exploitation of the Perchina gold fields. He told a representative of the Associated Press recently that his company, which has $800 shareholders and £1,000,000 capital, expects to find this field a second California. He returned less than two months ago from Stretsk, which is the starting point of

SALE OF COUNT BONI'S YACHT

Walthea is Being Forced on Market by One of His Important Creditors.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, Dec. 8.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The recent anxiety of Count Boni de Castellane to sell the yacht Walthea cheap is now explained. M. Davillier, a Paris banker, who has been unable to raise more than the 750,000 francs (about $150,000) he owed M. Davillier, the original cost being $50,000 francs ($10,000), in addition to which he had spent over 200,000 francs ($40,000) in refitting the craft. Therefore he begged delay.

The court declined to release the yacht, but granted Castellane until the end of February. Unless the 750,000 francs ($150,000) be paid then the yacht will be sold at public auction, the minimum price to be accepted being fixed at 350,000 francs ($70,000).

POKE MUCH FUN AT ROSTAND

Paris Press Puts the Poet on the Griddle and Fry Him for Public Delectation.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) PARIS, Dec. 8.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Nothing has ever called forth such cruel, unflinching mockery in Paris as Edmond Rostand's "Welcome Ode," published in the Figaro the day of Paul Kruger's arrival here. The noted poet and dramatist nearly covered a page of that paper with an amazing compound of bombastic infinities and triviality. When it appeared Paris was astounded. Now excruciating parodies of it appear in all the newspapers and music halls.

Condition of the Seas. LIVADIA, Dec. 8.—The physicians of the car issued the following bulletin this morning: "The car felt very well during the last twenty-four hours. He appeared part of the day out of bed. His strength is visibly increasing and his temperature and pulse are normal."
